The Giddings pair will be strong favorites, Hearts of Oak being looked on by the public as the champion, but there is much confidence in other quarters that something will take his measure. Mr. Giddings thinks the race is over and half expects to run second as well as first. Other work-outs today were:

SOME OF THE THINGS WILLIAM P. BURCH'S GOOD HORSES DID IN RACING

WILLIAM P. BURCH ranks well up in the list of truly veterans of the American turf and stainless record as an owner, trainer and racing official. It has been training horses forty years or more and training them well, for himself and others. A quiet and mobitors was a mask younger man than he is now, to-wit be hand of more in Colorial Spragne, total Helen Wallace. Homespan, Jim Nelson and others that could win. At the same time C. H. Pettingill owned such other good once as Duk was a mask younger man than he is now, to-wit ble band of more in Colorial Spragne, total Helen Wallace. Homespan, Jim Nelson and others that could win. At the same time C. H. Pettingill owned such other good once as Duk was the euclion of the two worthies to take their horses to Charleston and Savannah for a touch of winter racing after the northern racing campaign was over. To show what period of the Charleston December meeting of 1882 is quite interesting. It covered four days, of which one had four races and the others three each, so there were thirteen races in all. Two was the contract of the Charleston Legibles. Of the remaining eleven they won ten between them, Burch which are the probable both the contract of the Charleston Legibles. Of the remaining eleven they won ten between them, Burch which are the contract of the charleston beginner to the charlest of the ch consernation, tribulation and rigid economy in the aristocratic Chinese establishment through a hard winter.

In his time Mr. Burch raced many high-class horses, too many to attempt to notice in a short sketch, but a capital filly that he owned and raced in 1885 gained for herself the record of winning the race marked by the longest delay at the post known in American racing. This was Biggonet, by Bramble—Bobinet, and the race was the Spinaway Stakes, at Saratoga, August 1, 1885, Fourteen fillies went to the post and stayed there something more than two hours and a quarter. Charles Wheatley was then secretary of the Saratoga Association and appointed his son, R. R. Wheatley starter, in the hope that he would become expert at the business in time. But he was the worst ever and it was due to his unfitness for the work that this remarkable delay occurred. Like most of the Brambles, Biggonet was a sturdy creature and, standing the working the set, won without difficulty. Hereabouts a good many people imagine that the long delay at the post when Boundless won the American Derby was a record, but it is this Saratoga case that stands out alone and unapproachable. The next year Biggonet won the Withers Stakes and beat all the crack colts of the year. Only one other filly ever won this historic race, Lucania carrying it off in 1895.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING OWNERS OF 1913

The stable accounts of the leading winning owners of the present year have swelled appreciably since racing began in the north, but no notable changes have taken place other than in the addition of such new names as those of J. N. Camden, T. P. Hayes, R. Parr, R. T. Wilson, H. P. Whitney, E. R. Bradley and a few others who took no part in winter racing, J. O. Talbott is still comfortably at the head of the list by a good margin. Talbott, J. L. Holland, H. G. Bedwell and the Tennessee Stable are the winners of $10,000 or more and the improved prospects of racing points to the conclusion that the leading owner of 1913 will have to amass a total considerably greater than that which gave John W. Schorr first place in 1912. The accounts of the thirty leading owners are now:

Three-quarters of a mile of the track is now ready for working over and the cushion and the dressing will be applied to the remainder of the mile circuit within a few days. The club membership will be limited to 250 and more applications than can be accepted have already been received. A. R. Loudon of Hamilton has been appointed racing secretary, while Albert Rohrback, of Buffalo, will continue as manager and superintend the completion of the new plant, which is valued at a quarter of a million dollars.

COMMENDS SPIRIT OF OFFER.

New York, May 22.—District Attorney Wysong has replied as follows to the offer of the West-chester Racing Association to hear the expense of employing special deputy sheriffs at Belmont Park to see that the New York law prohibiting bookmaking is enforced during the coming race meeting:

"The tone of your letter is highly pleasing to me. The people of this county desire the enforcement of all laws and they can rely upon their officers to do their utmost to see that they are enforced. The earnest co-operation of the racing associations is much to be desired and working together with the officials, gambling, bookmaking and kindred form of law breaking can be abolished from our race tracks."

Superintendent H. I. Pelz has had a big force of workmen busily employed for many weeks at Belmont Park and, so far as the big track is concerned, it is ready now for the horses. The Long Island Railroad has decided to resume the horse special, which will leave Sheepshead Bay, each race day, for the accommodation of horsemen who are stabling either there or at Gravesend. As usual, it will consist of horse cars enough to accommodate all the thoroughbreds that are booked to race at the West-chester Racing Association track.

The board of governors of the Turf and Field Club have just re-opened the clubhouse at Belmont Park.

TEN POINT AGAIN BEATEN

A. L. ASTE'S THREE-YEAR-OLD FINISHES SEC-OND TO SWANNANOA IN HANDICAP.

Lack of Condition Blamed for Colt's Second Defeat in Kentucky-Salon Is Returned Winner of Juvenile Stakes.

Louisville, Ky., May 22.—Ten Point, of which so much was expected this season, sustained his second defeat since his arrival in Kentucky, when he was beaten at Churchill Downs this afternoon by Swamananoa in the mile and seventy yards handleap, which served as the secondary feature of the program. His defeat by the Cowdin mare was wholly unexpected. Those who figured that he might sustain a setback in the race regarded Hamilton as the most likely to take his measure, but the Schorr representative raced in the most disappointing fashion and finished a distant trailer. After the race there were any number of shrewd judges who declared that Ten Point was by far the best in the race and that his defeat was due solely to lack of condition. He was under stout restraint for six furlongs, seemingly able to come away from Swamanana, his closest attendant, on call, but when Gross asked him to do so, he failed utterly and had to be driven hard during the last furlong to save second place from the fast finishing Prince Hermis. The latter lost a considerable amount of ground by going wide, was going fastest of all at the end and would have won at a longer distance. According to rumor, Ten Point has been considerably indulged since his arrival here and has had little work. This is said to have been due to his trainer's cheap regard of Ten Point's possible opposition. Lack of condition and poor riding contributed to his defeat in the Kentucky Derby and, while he was well handled in today's race, lack of condition was again a factor. Owner Aste, while he felt the colt's defeat this afternoon keenly, expressed confidence in Ten Point's ability to take the measure of any horse hereabouts and feels sanguine that he will redeem himself in the Kentucky Handicap to be rum next Monday at Douglas Park. It is stated that the colt will be given a final work-out on Saturday and that he will be "set down" on that occasion to the limit.

The Juvenile Stakes at five furlongs, worth $2,230 net to the winner, was won by J. W. Messervy's Salon

ALCHEMIST'S JOCKEY GOES TO SLEEP.

Spokane, Wash., May 22.—Pleasant weather prevailed today. It being ladies' day there was a large attendance at Alan this afternoon. The card was lacking in quality, but the majority of the races furnished stirring contests. The closest finish of the day came with the running of the opening race, when Bezanson, on Zool, stole the race away from the overconfident Molesworth on Alchemist.

Orange Blosson, a first-time starter here, accounted for the allowance race at five furlongs in impressive fashion. She is locally-owned and has a great many admirers here. From a time standpoint, considering that the track is not at its best, her performance was a good one. Delaney ruled favorite and he can rightfully be termed the most unfortunate horse racing at this track, as he has met with more interference in all his starts than any other horse here. He was repeatedly interefered with today and finished like a lion.

J. Sears of Spokane and Guy Gray had an alterestion in the betting ring today. Sears was the aggressor and the judges ruled that he be denied admission to the course, while Gray was disciplined by being denied the privileges of the betting ring for one week.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

War Horn and Hoffman are particularly bad postactors.

Jockeys Knapp and Moody will do the riding for e Davies stable in Canada.

The Tulsa meeting, which was to have dysterday, has been extended for two days, and yesterday, has been extended for two days, and will come to an end tomorrow.

After having had the case under consideration for about ten hours without being able to agree on a verdict, the Lexington jury in the suit of Cat's by Woodford against Dan Morris and Claude M. Thomas was finally discharged.

The two French dealers who were recently tried at Aurillac on a charge of substituting a thoroughbred for a half-bred, and defranding the local race societies, have been found guilty, after the case was conclusively proved, and sentenced respectively to a year and six months' imprisonment and costs. August Belment's two-vear-old Defendum has a August Belmont's two-year-old Defendum has a bad trait. Starter Dade says that when he goes to the post he stands at the barrier as if he was stupid, and nothing can get him away with the others. The stable boys call the colt 'Deaf and Dumb' instead of Defendum. Nothwithstanding this defect, Mr. Belmont believes he is one of the best colts in the stable and that he will make a star when he learns to race.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING HORSES OF 1913

A two-year-old and a good one now leads the American winning horses of 1913 in amount of money won. So far as he has gone Imperator has justified his resounding name and is unbeaten. Winning the Kentucky Derby placed Donerail second in the list, but not far in advance of his fleet rival. Ten Point. The veteran Donald Macdonald has taken a new lease on racing life and, by virtue of having won ten races in thirteen starts, is now fourth in the winning list, a position infrequently held by a horse seven years old. The sprinter Caugh Hill, the good two-year-old Gordon, the sturdy handicap horse John Furlong and the speedy fillies Tarts and Pan Zareta have each won gver $3,000 and promise to win more. The thirty leading horses and their records are:

SOME THREE-YEAR-OLDS IN FRANCE.

SOME THREE-YEAR-OLDS IN FRANCE.

French sportsmen have advanced a step towards the classic events of the three-year-olds of 1913. Sunday's program at Longohamps was of sufficient interest to secure a good attendance, notwithstanding very indifferent weather. It was known that Viscount d'Harcourt, who has been buying mares for his stud since 1888 without securing any classic event, although in 1895 it was thought that Cherbourg, after winning the Prix un Nabob, had an excellent chance of securing the Derby and Grand Prize of Paris. It is a matter of history how that gallant horse died on the battlefield, a victim to that cardiac malady which stopped him when victory was within his grasp at Chanthly and Longchamps. There was no harder worker than his trainer, James Clumington, nor could he have shown greater devotion to his patron when indifferent health compelled him to resign than by nominating as his successor Charles Bartholomew, the former manager and trainer of that mammoth stable at Chamant formed by M. Albert Menler, with over two hundred horses in work. It seems like a fairy tale, more especially when most of the time of the responsible trainer was absorbed by conferences as to engagements and possible runners for each event, that C. Bartholomew, through fact and judgment, should have carried on for many years without imposing a severe loss on the stable whose owner held pride of place on more than one occasion on the list of winning owners. Now, after all those ups and downs inseparable from the breaking up of such an enormous establishment, the turn of she wheel has placed in his hands the winner of the Prix des Cars, Ecouen, which looks like a Derby winner.

Ecouen's first appearance last September, when the son of St. Frusquin was sent out for the Prix Sablonville, made a most favorable impression. He had everything a trainer could wish for—good legs, fine hocks, his sire appearance hast September, when the son of St. Frusquin was sent out for the Prix Sablonville, made and the large hurried, and whe al course rendered heavy by rain which had fallen all ulght, and had continued throughout the morning, imposed a trying task on him when meeting Opott, which had had the best attention Elijah Cumington could give.

The son of St. Frusquin allowed the pace to be set by his opponents, and O'Neill waited until the turn for home, where he secured a good place and let his horse run home without asking him a question. The victory of Ecouen proved him certainly the most authorized candidate for Derby honors we have seen as yet in public, and enabled many to draw a comparison between him and Mr. A. Belmont's Vulcain VI., whose majestic proportions in the paddock arrested the eye as he was led round the ring. The son of Rock Sand and Lady of the Vale is one of the pair, with Nimbus, destined to cross the Channel for the Epsom Derby. Mr. A. Belmont's colt is in the hands of R. Carter, senior, who was the 'mnsect' of the stable of M. Calliauli, whose name he placed on the scroll of fame with Roxelane in 1897 as the winner of the Oaks, with Ferth as the winner of the Derby two years lead the twice, with Perth and Cheri, as winner of the Darby and the twice, with Perth and Cheri, as winner of the Tana her rife de Paris, while Macdonald secured for him her rife de Paris, while Macdonald secured for him has been confided the task of preparing Vulcain VI. for the Prix du Jockey Club, as well as for the English Derby. The son of Rock Sand is imposing in appearance, but although he is not one of those heaven-born colts with whom no fault could be found, he was sent to the post in an impeccable condition, every muscle standing out, one of the best-topped horses on the course. The same question was asked as in the case of Ecouen as to how he would act on the heavy ground, with the Boulogne Hill to get down. He was also entrusted to O'Neill, who is far and away the most careful of those who have crossed the Atlantic to ride here. The victory was conclusive, for again allowing the field to pace him he folined in at the straight run

GROSS TO RIDE FOR A. L. ASTE.

Owner of Ten Point Engages Jockey for His Stable -Kentucky Gossip.

Louisville, Ky., May 22.—Ten Point, A, L. Aste's noted three-year-old, worked a mile in 1:44% at Douglas Park a day or two ago, in preparation for his engagement in the $15,000 Kentucky Handlcap, to be run next Monday as the feature of the opening of the twelve-days' spring meeting at Douglas Park. The son of Jack Point is not a work horse, but by trial shows that he is in good form as he ran throughout this mile even more generously than usual when sent along by himself. Mr. Aste has secured first call on the California rider, Charles Gross, and that jockey will pilot Ten Point in the big race next Monday.

The Kentucky Derby winner, Donerail, one of the first call on the California rider, Charles Gross, and that jockey will pilot Ten Point in the big race next Monday.

The Kentucky Derby winner, Donerall, one of the favorites for the big race, worked faster than any of the candidates that were on the tracks yesterday. His work was done at Douglas Park and he went a mile in 1:42%. He appears to be in perfect condition and seemingly is even better than he was on Kentucky Derby day when he established a new track record of 2:04% at Churchill Downs for a mile and a quarter, which is also the distance of Douglas Park's big race.

The Kentucky Handicap is now the chief subject of turf gossip, and the students of public form are entertaining themselves by speculating on the probable winner of this, the richest of all the spring and summer stakes. From present calculations, the attendance noxt Monday at Douglas Park will beat all records for that course.

There was some sharp work at Chuchill Downs yesterday by the crack fillies engaged in the Kentucky Oaks, which is to be decided next Saturday, the closing day of the Downs meeting. Floral Park went a mile in 1:40, evenly rated throughout. Ocean Blue went a mile in 1:42%, and is regarded as a sure starter in the Oaks, Christmas Star was sent five furlougs in 1:04%, pulled up. Gowell, having raced the day before, was only slowly cantered. She appeared to have come out of her Tuesday's performance in good shape.

The most sensational work yesterday at either track was by 1!! K. Knapp's crack four-year-old filly. Sprite. This filly, unbeaten so far this season, went three-quarters in 1:12 at Douglas Park, running the first five furlougs in 1:12 at Douglas Park, running the first five furlougs in 1:12 at Douglas Park, running the first five furlougs in 1:12 at Douglas Park, running the first five furlougs in 1:12 at Douglas Park, running the first five furlougs in 1:12 at Douglas Park, running the first five furlougs in 1:12 at Douglas Park, running the first five furlougs in 1:12 at Douglas Park, running the first five f of his recent race at the Downs with a bad cut on his left hind leg. The injury is not serious, but it is sufficient to keep the son of Sir Wilfred from facing the barrier for the next ten days or two weeks.

H. C. Hallenbeck returned to New York yesterday, but will be back before the spring and summer season is over on the Kentucky tracks. He is building a $2,000,000 business building in New York City and progress in the erection of that structure requires his personal attention. Trainer Frank M. Taylor will transfer the Hallenbeck string to Douglas Park Saturday. He has decided to dispose of five members of his stable. Prince Gal. Recompeuse. Sir Marion, Sir Denrah and Blue Thistle. They will be sold privately. Taylor is selling these performers to make room for other horses that he desires to add to the Hallenbeck string if he can secure them for fairly reasonable prices.

Trainer W. J. Sheirs will not send Labold to the post in the Kentucky Handleap. He has no fault to find with the weight secretary Maginn gave that performer in the race. 100 pounds, but he does not think the son of Gold Heels is up to a race at a mile and a quarter, as he has had no chance to race Labold as yet this season. The horse is training well and looking fine and probably will give a good account of himself this season.

Earl Linnell shipped his five horses, Love Day, Amon, Ymir, scaple and Maddaline with W. C. Clancy's string to chandary tracks but his horses of C. Gross as a rider show that his horses of C. ## RECENT RACING IN AUSTRALIA.

The Australian Jockey Club Autumn Meeting was held during Easter week at Randwick, Sydney. This meeting is the most important in New South Wales, and only second in importance through the Commonwealth to the Melbourne Cup meeting. A. Connolly's Joly Beggar, a five-year-old by Ayr Laddie from Lady Trenville, defeating in the latter race the favorite Endorus, which is well known on the English race courses. He still belongs to Mossrs, Clark and Robinson, and is trained by J. E. Brewer.

The Autumn Stakes and Cumberland Stakes were won by Mr. W. Brown's four-year-old bay colt Plastre, the winner of last year's Melbourne Cup, which by his performances this year has stamped himself as the best horse in the Commonwealth. The Australian Jockey Club's Plate of three miles went to Mr. White's bay colt Harpist, three years, by Sir Tristram out of Choir Girl.

The Sydney Cup (two miles) was annexed by the five-year-old bay horse Cadonia, by Prudent King out of Encoma. carrying 137 pounds, and starting at 25 to 1. Cagon (by Ayr Laddie) was second, and Jacamar by Positano, third. The time for the race was 3:2834.

The most successful jockey at the meeting was G. Lambert, who rode four winners, A. Wood and M. Connell coning next

LEXINGTON MEETING WAS PROFITABLE.

Lexington, Ky., May 22.—Directors of the Kentucky Association will meet here tomorrow morning to hear treasurer Younger Alexander's report on the financial result of the spring race meeting and to decide upon improvements to be made on the local plant. It is understood that the profits from the spring meeting were approximately $17,000 and there appears to be a disposition to expend nearly all of this in extending the grandstand and in building new barns and repairing old ones.

RESERVATIONS AT BLUE BONNETS.

MonReal, Que., May 22.—That there will be an abundance of excellent racing material to provide the fields at Blue Bonnets during the spring meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club, June 3-10, is shown by the numerous applications for stabling even at this early date. Stalls for nearly three hundred horses have already been asked for by horsemen who will race here, while there are still others to be heard from.

ints early date. Stalls for hearly three hundred horses have already been asked for by horsemen who will race here, while there are still others to be heard from.

The dates for Canadian racing are more compactly arranged this season than for the past two or three hard. Woodbine will open the season on May 24 and close on June 10, while Connaught Park at ottawa is to be opened on June 14 and close on June 21. This gives only a three-days interval between meetings, which is just about sufficient time to ship comfortably. The new arrangement has aided in making the Canadian circuit more attractive than ever. Those who have asked for stalls at Blue Bonnets include: John W. Burttschell, 4 horses: W. T. Anderson, 10: H.
